

GAY SALOME'

A young man comes out of a house in the suburbs, gets into a taxi and is driven to the Alibi. In another city neighbourhood another young man sets out in his own car. The two, along with a few others, go up the steps into the small theatre: the mirror lights play upon the make-up, rouge, face powder and wigs and within a short time we witness the transformation miracle: the birth of woman. Adam has become Eva.
