

TESTIMONE (IL)

Two men who had been close friends in their youth meet after many years; one of them has become a famous restorer of works of art and the other a great industrial businessman. It is the latter who has called his friend far a job. Between love affairs and parties a teenager is killed; the restorer thinks that he saw the girl with his friend. To save his friend he does not say anything, but he is the only witness...
