

OCCHIO SELVAGGIO (L')

An unscrupulous film director stages the shocking scenes that give zest to his documentaries. A young woman falls in love with him but their relationship is doomed as he twists her emotions to fit the concept of his films.

Grand Prix International Festival of Mosca 1967.

In 1969, American International Pictures distributed this film in the USA dubbed in English (retitled "The Wild Eye") on a double bill with Hell's belles la donna dei centauri.

Screenplay by: Paolo Cavara, Tonino Guerra, Fabio Carpi, Alberto Moravia

GENRES	Adventure
PRODUCTION YEAR	1967
DIRECTED BY	Paolo Cavara
CAST	Philippe Leroy, Delia Boccardo, Gabriele Tinti, Lars Bloch
RUNTIME	1,37'
ORIGINAL VERSION	Italian
AVAILABLE VERSIONS	English, French, German, Italian